PER CURIAM.

The district court<sup>1</sup> revoked the supervised release of Thomas E. Simmons, Jr., and sentenced him to prison. The court later granted the government's Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 35(b) motion and reduced his sentence. Simmons filed notices of appeal from both sentences. In Appeal No. 06-2904, we affirm the judgment of the district court, noting that counsel makes no argument in his brief regarding the original revocation sentence. We dismiss Appeal No. 06-3907, in which counsel argues that the reduced sentence is unreasonable, because we lack jurisdiction to
